Meeting the Reentry Needs of Women: Policies, Programs and Practices
March 15-16, 2012
Washington, DC

Thank you for your interest in “Meeting the Reentry Needs of Women: Policies, Programs and Practices” conference sponsored by the HHS Office on Women's Health (OWH). This conference is scheduled for March 15-16 in Washington, DC. Seamon Corporation, under contract to OWH, will provide administrative and logistical support for the conference.

The purpose of this conference is to discuss strategies and exchange ideas on how to increase the health, well-being, and safety of individuals, families and communities by improving reentry outcomes. This conference will include discussions on access to health care, employment, education, stable and safe housing, family connectedness and reduced recidivism, through the utilization of gender responsive strategies for women leaving jails and prisons. The conference report will be shared with the National Reentry Council to inform them of the needs of women reentering the community and society.
